

For the third consecutive year S.A.C.I Falabella was selected to join the Dow Jones Sustainability Index

- Only two retailers in Latin American are included in this list. Also, the company was selected as a member of DJSI Emerging Markets, DJSI MILA and DJSI Chile.

Santiago, September 13th, 2018. For the third consecutive year, S.A.C.I. Falabella was selected as a member of the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index (DJSI World), which groups the leading companies committed to sustainable development based on economic, social and environmental matters. Only two retailers in Latin American and two Chilean companies are included in this list.

S.A.C.I Falabella, also was selected as a member of the DJSI Emerging Markets, DJSI MILA (which brings together the companies of the Pacific alliance) and DJSI Chile.

The Dow Jones Sustainability Index, jointly developed by S&P Dow Jones Index and the Swiss firm RobecoSam, was created on 1999 and monitors the progress of organizations in economic, social and environmental matters. In this edition, they studied 2,094 companies from 47 countries, and selected the leaders who are in the top 10% of sustainable management in their respective industries.

S.A.C.I. Falabella is present in Chile, Peru, Colombia, Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay and Mexico, through six business units (department stores, home improvement, supermarkets, real estate, financial services and market place). At the end of June, the company operated 496 stores and 42 shopping centers in Latin America. The company is part of the Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI World), which brings together the main companies that lead efforts in responsible growth internationally. It was also selected in the indices DJSI Emerging Markets, DJSI Chile and DJSI MILA. More information about Falabella Companies at investors.falabella.com
