

Opening of supermarkets

From August 2019 to date, Falabella has opened seven supermarkets, where six openings correspond to supermarkets in our business in Peru and one supermarket in Chile.

Peru: there were five openings of Hiperbodega Precio Uno. The first opened its doors in the city of Trujillo on August 13 and has 1,734 m² of sales area. The second, inaugurated on September 25 in Piura, has a sales area of approximately 1,500 m². The third, with 2,043 m² of sales area and opened its doors on October 2 in Iquitos. The fourth, on the other hand, was inaugurated on October 23 and is located with 2,400 m² of sales area in the city of Pucallpa. The fifth format was inaugurated on December 14 with 2,500 m² of sales area in the city of Tarapoto and represents the first Hiperbodega in the city, which until recently had no presence of the modern channel. These five new supermarkets are joined by a Tottus hypermarket, inaugurated on November 14 at Real Plaza Puruchuco, Lima, with approximately 6,900 m² of sales floor.

Chile: the new Tottus Curauma was inaugurated, with a sales area of 2,453 m².

With these openings, Tottus now has 77 supermarkets in Peru, 69 in Chile and a total of 146 in the region.
