

Falabella appoints Juan Pablo Harrison as CFO

- The executive has a degree in Business and Administration from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, with more than 25 years of experience leading the departments of finance, administration and management control and 12 years within the company.

Santiago, May 31, 2024.- In the board meeting held on Tuesday, May 28, Falabella S.A. confirmed Juan Pablo Harrison as CFO of the company, who had been serving in the position on an interim basis since April of this year.

Harrison has a degree in Business and Administration from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, with more than 25 years of experience leading the departments of finance, administration and management control.

Prior to his role as CFO, he was Corporate Manager of Financial Planning and Management at Falabella S.A. for six years, and between 2012 and 2018 he was the Manager of Administration and Finance of CMR Falabella and Corporate Finance Manager of Falabella Financiero. During this period, Harrison played an important role in projects such as the integration of CMR with Banco Falabella; the capital increase carried out in 2018 for US$ 581 million that made it possible to boost the digital capabilities of the ecosystem and develop the IKEA franchise; the placement of bonds in international markets and the centralization of shared financial services in the Group to streamline and optimize its management.

“During the more than 12 years that Juan Pablo has worked in the Group, in which he has participated in highly complex projects, he has been characterized by implementing successful financial discipline, ensuring the necessary resources for the company's projects. We are sure that his strategic vision, analytical capacity, and human quality will contribute to this new role that he assumes” highlighted Alejandro González, CEO of Falabella S.A.

Previous roles of his that stand out are vice-rector of Finance and Services at Universidad de Las Américas (2009-2012), director of Finance at Publiguías Yell (2007-2009); and leading the Finance and Control management in Enersis Group companies between 1996 and 2007.
